JERRY CLAIBORNE
Head Football Coach

Jerry Claiborne is the dean of the Atlantic Coast Conference football coaches and the first ten year coach at Maryland since Dr. H. C. "Curley" Byrd gave up coaching to become President of the University in 1935.

His record at Maryland (9 years) is 73-31-2 and only Dr. Byrd with a 117-81-15 record over 23 years ever won more for the Terrapins.

While serving as the President of the American Football Coaches Association in 1980, Claiborne improved his 19 year record as a head coach to 134-70-4 with his ninth bowl team.

His .654 winning percentage ranks him among the Winningest Active Division I-A coaches in the nation. Only six active coaches in Division I-A have won more games than the 134 won by Claiborne.

When Claiborne arrived in College Park in 1972 he was taking over a football program that had suffered through five head coaches in 16 years with a combined record of 60-100-1. The last bowl visit by a Maryland team had been the 1955 appearance in the Orange Bowl.

In just nine years Claiborne has recorded 73 wins, made seven bowl appearances and won three Atlantic Coast Conference Championships.

The Terrapins had not had a winning season during the nine years prior to Claiborne's arrival and had one winless season during that period. Claiborne has not had a losing season at Maryland and has won seven or more games in all but his first year when he broke even at 5-5-1. His 1976 team won all 11 regular season games enroute to the Cotton Bowl.

His first Maryland game was in Raleigh, North Carolina in 1972 and the Terps were suffering with a six game losing streak in the league. The game ended in a 24-24 tie but the Terps picked up their first conference victory four weeks later with Maryland's first league shutout in seven years 23-0 over Wake Forest.

His second conference shutout came in 1973, 37-0 over Wake Forest and began a league record 21 consecutive conference victories. In nine years the Terps have won 42 ACC games with only nine losses and the tie while outscoring the opposition 1.324 to 523 with 16 shutouts among the 52 games.

In 1973 another Claiborne joined the Maryland football program as a non-scholarship player. Jonathan, the coach's son, earned his scholarship the hard way excelling for the junior varsity. At 5-foot 10 and 170 pounds he was the starting safety for Maryland's Cotton Bowl team of '76 and the Hall of Fame Classic team of '77. He was an ACC Honor Roll Student each year he was at Maryland and graduated with a double major in Accounting and History. He graduated from the Duke University Law School in 1981. During the 1976-77 school year he recorded a perfect 4.0 grade point average in the classroom and was named to the SKOAL HAPPY DAYS Academic All-American Football Team selected by the College Sports Information Directors.

Jonathan was also the recipient of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Scholarship and received a $1,500 NCAA Scholar Athlete Award for post graduate study.

Coach Claiborne also developed two other Academic All-Americans with Kim Hoover honored in 1975 and Joe Muffler in both 1977 and '78. He has had 34 pleyers on the All-ACC Academic Football Teams in nine years.

He is a strong advocate of recognition for his athletes. Prior to his arrival the Terps had five All-ACC players in seven years and since then have had 37 named to the all-league team in his nine years, including seven on the 1976 team.

The last All-American had been Gary Collins as a first team selection in 1961 but Claiborne has developed Paul Vellano, Randy White, Joe Campbell, Steve Mike-Mayer and Dale Castro as first team selections. Second and third team selections include Louis Carter, Ed Fulton, Mark Manges, Steve Atkins and Charles Johnson.

Randy White also picked up such honors as the Outland Trophy, Lombardi Trophy, ACC Player of the Year honors, UPI Lineman of the Year and had his jersey number 94 retired by the university.

The many accomplishments of Claiborne since his arrival at Maryland are listed on the following pages under "The Claiborne Era".

In addition to his coaching at Maryland and serving as President of the Football Coaches Association, Claiborne has found time to participate in coaching activities from Ramstein, Germany to Tokyo, Japan. He is a firm believer in the benefits derived from intercollegiate football and devotes many off-season hours to furthering the interests of football.

During his ten years at Virginia Tech he served on the staff of the Blue-Gray and Coaches All-American game. Since joining the Terrapins he has served on the staff of the Coaches All-American game, the East-West Shrine game and the Hula Bowl and as the Head Coach in the East-West Shrine game, the Hula Bowl and the Japan Bowl.

He has conducted clinics in Europe (Ramstein, Germany, and Alconbury, England for the USAF), participated in the NCAA College Football Press Day, the ABC-NCAA College Football Preview and on the football rules committee.

He has contributed his support to many charity drives, serving as the Chairman of the Prince George's County Cancer Crusade and the State Chairman of the Cancer Crusade while at Virginia Tech.

He serves on the United Press International Board of Coaches among his many, off the field activities and devotes considerable time to each of these activities. He is an active member of the Fellowship of Chrisian Athletes and has served as a Deacon in the Baptist Church.

His time is budgeted to include everything from his travel to a few minutes relaxation playing tennis with several faculty members during his lunch break one day a week.

As an athlete Claiborne earned considerable recognition himself. He was named the "Outstanding Senior" on the University of Kentucky's 1949 team that went on to the Orange Bowl, while playing defensive back for Paul Bryant. During his senior year the defensive secondary at Kentucky established and still holds the NCAA record for Most Yards on Interception Returns in a single game with 240 against Mississippi on October 1, 1949 (six returns).

In addition he was held in high esteem academically, elected to several honorary leadership-scholarship organizations including Lamp and Cross and Omicron Delta Kappa. He was selected the "Outstanding Senior" in the College of Education and graduated from Kentucky with "High Distinction" accumulating a 2.7 out of a possible 3.0 grade point average. In 1968 he was elected to the University of Kentucky Hall of Fame.

During his athletic career the most popular dress of youngsters in Hopkinsville, Kentucky was a football jersey with Claiborne's 88 on it. Many youngsters painted the number on their TEE shirts when the jreseys were not available.

Claiborne began his teaching career at Augusta Military Academy as Head Football Coach and Basketball Coach. The first year his basketball team won the State prep championship and the second year his football team won the state title.

After two years at the Academy he returned to his Alma Mater as assistant coach with Paul Bryant. Two years later Coach Bryant moved to Texas A & M and Claiborne went with him as defensive coordinator. In two years Texas A & M was the Southwestern Conference Champion and Coach Claiborne's defense led the league.

In 1957 Coach Claiborne joined the Missouri coaching staff with Frank Broyles. Once again Claiborne was the defensive coordinator. However his stay in Missouri was short-lived as the next year found Coach Bryant accepting the Head Coaching position at Alabama and Claiborne returned to Bryant's staff as the assistant head coach in charge of the defense.

In two of the next three years the Alabama teams were among the best in the country defensively as they played in both the Liberty and Bluebonnet Bowls .

With such immediate success being the pattern of Claiborne's coaching career he was selected as the Head Football Coach at Virginia Polytechnic Institute. In three years Virginia Tech won the first Southern Conference Championship in the history of the school. In 1966 and 1968 Claiborne's Virginia Tech teams played in the Liberty Bowl.

In 1963 and 1966 he was selected as the Southern Conference "Coach of the Year". In 1966 he was named the District III "Coach of the Year". His overall record of 61-39-2 at VPI ranked him among the top 25 coaches in the United States and he has continued to move up on the list since his arrival at Maryland.

In 1973, 1975 and 1976 he was named the ACC and District III "Coach of the Year" and in 1974 was named the "National Coach of the Year" by The Sporting News.

Mrs. Claiborne, the former Faye Hooks of Hopkinsville is also a University of Kentucky graduate. The Claiborne's have two sons David and Jonathan and two daughters Katie and Eileen.

Claiborne was born on August 26, 1928.

John Devlin (West Chester '59)
Linebackers

Coach Devlin was honored in '79 by West Chester State College with a "Distinguished Alumnus Award, the first athlete to receive the honor and he certainly has been a credit to his Alma Mater.

He works with the group that Coach Claiborne has often mentioned as the key to the success of the wide tackle six defense.

His linebackers have led the team in tackles the last three years with Joe Wilkins tops with 131 last fall and Brian Matera 159 in 1979.

Devlin has his top five linebackers returning from the Tangerine Bowl team and will regain the services of Darnell Dailey a starter in 1979 who missed the 1980 season with a pre-season injury. With the depth returning David D'Addio was able to return to fullback in the spring after filling in for Dailey last fall.

Devlin has developed some of the best over the years and Neal Olkewicz established a Maryland record for tackles in a season with 188 in '78 and blocked a Clemson punt in the final game of the season that resulted in a Maryland touchdown. Olkewicz was a rookie starter for the Redskins in '79.

Brian Matera led the Terps in tackles in '79 with 159 and the linebackers accounted for four quarterback sacks and 10 tackles for minus 34 yards in the opponent's backfield.

Brad Carr was the leading tackler on the Cotton Bowl team with 157, Kevin Benson led the Gator Bowl team with 149 and Harry Walters set a Maryland record with 173 on the 1974 Liberty Bowl team. All three achieved All-ACC honors and Honorable Mention All-American honors with Carr picking up 106 of a possible 110 votes in the balloting for all-league honors as a junior. Walters is now an established star in the Canadian Football League.

Devlin joined the Terps in 1973, replacing Bobby Ross who assumed the head coaching duties at The Citadel. He served with Coach Claiborne at Virginia Tech from 1966 through 1970 and was the defensive line coach at Florida State for two years before joining Claiborne at Maryland.

The native of Norristown, Pennsylvania began his football career at St. Matthews High in nearby Conshohocken and went on to West Chester State College.

While at West Chester he achieved all-conference honors as a tackle and was the weight man on the track team. His 1958 team at West Chester was called the best ever coached by Glenn Killinger, the Rams coach for 25 years.

Devlin began his coaching career at Waynesboro High and then coached the Fourth Army team while serving in Germany. He joined Paul Dietzel at West Point for three years before moving to Virginia Tech.

He was born in Norristown on April 12, 1937. While in Germany he married the former Irma Kleemann of Regensburg, Germany. They have four children, John III, Elizabeth, William and Michael.

Devlin is seldom seen an a Saturday afternoon except when rushing to the locker room at halftime. He spends the game in the press box calling the defensive signals for the team that ranked as the Nation's second best in total defense in 1976.

Jerry Eisaman (Kentucky '60)
Quarterbacks

Coach Eisaman went into the 1981 spring practice with four candidates for the starting quarterback spot and opened fall practice with all four still in contention for the job.

Brent Dewitz and Bob Milkovich both have game experience and Boomer Esiason, a redshirt sophomore threw three touchdown passes in the spring game. Freshman Frank Reich has a strong arm and had a fine year as the junior varsity quarterback.

Eisaman opened the '78 season without a letterman quarterback and the Terps hehind Tim O'Hare went on to a 9-3 record and the Sun Bowl. They were second in the ACC in passing and scoring and third in total offense in '78 despite opening the season without a letterman.

Eisaman's quarterbacks led the league in passing in 1974 and 1977 and three went on to the professional ranks. Bob Avellini has started with the Chicago Bears and Larry Dick in Canada with the Saskatchewan Roughriders. Mark Manges moved on to the St. Louis Cardinals, Los Angeles and Philadelphia.

His quarterbacks have averaged nearly 150 yards a game passing over the past seven years and the passing game alone has accounted for over 42 percent of the Maryland offense.

While at Kentucky Eisaman was recognized as the All-SEC Sophomore Quarterback and was selected Co-Captain his senior year. He also played in the Blue-Gray All-Star game.

Academically he received the Sam Huey award for the highest scholastic standing among the members of the football team for four years, and was a member of the Scabbard and Blade Society.

While an officer in the Army he coached the First Cavalry Division to the Far East Championship and also coached the Fort Knox Tankers. From there he spent three years at Seneca High in Louisville, Kentucky before joining Coach Claiborne at Virginia Tech in 1966, coaching the offensive backs for three years. He served as the offensive coordinator at the University of Cincinnati for three years before rejoining Claiborne at Maryland.

Eisaman also spends his afternoons in the press hox calling the offensive plays for the Terp quarterbacks. Coach Eisaman is a 44 year old hachelor.

George Foussekis (Virginia Tech '68)
Defensive Guards

Coach Foussekis works with the defensive guards who are vital to the Terps success against the ground game and at the same time put pressure on the opposing quarterhacks.

He has only three lettermen guards returning this fall but they have accounted for 22 quarterback sacks during the past two years.

During the two years Greg Vanderhout has 181 tackles and eight quarteback sacks while Mike Corvino has 207 tackles and eight sacks. Frank Kolencik has 97 tackles and six sacks during the same period.

In '79 Corvino and Vanderhout were second and third in tackles on the team and in '78 his guards chipped in with 28 quarteback sacks including a team record 13 by Bruce Palmer and 11 by Marlin Van Horn. The guards had 15 sacks in '80, 11 in '79, 28 in '78 including a team record 13 by Palmer and 11 hy Van Horn. The guards had a dozen sacks in '77 and 14 in each of the two previous seasons.

Foussekis achieved All-American recognition for three years while playing for Coach Claiborne at Virginia Tech and has developed an All-American at Maryland in Paul Vellano, a first team selection by the American Foothall Coaches Association in '73.

He has also had Paul Divito, Larry Seder, Ted Klaube, Van Horn and Palmer on the wire service honorable mention lists. His All-ACC guards include Vellano twice, Divito, Seder, Klaube, Palmer, and Van Horn.

Foussekis coaches with the same fervor that made him an All-American and is just as successful. Dave Vissaggio, one of his guards, won the ACC's Brian Piccolo Award in '74 and Ernie Sally earned three letters at guard before moving to tackle as a senior.

Coach Foussekis has been especially effective recruiting in his native state of Virginia. His recruits have included Walter White, a tight end from Charlottesville, now in the NFL and Steve Atkins, the Terps all-time ground gainer now with Green Bay. Lloyd Burruss, also of Charlottesville, was another of his prize recruits.

As a player he was a member of the Gobblers 1966 Liberty Bowl team and signed with the Denver Broncos in 1968. He returned to Virginia Tech with Coach Claiborne in 1969 and worked with the defensive line there for two years. In 1971 he served as the defensive coordinator at William & Mary and rejoined Coach Claiborne when he assumed the head coaching duites at Maryland.

Coach Foussekis is a graduate of Lane High in Charlottesville, Virginia where he captained the football, basketball and baseball teams. He was named the Most Valuahle Player in all three sports. His 1963 football team at Lane High won the state championship and he was named first team All-State.

Atkins, now with Green Bay, ran for 1,261 yards in '78 breaking Carter's mark of 991 yards in a season and his career marks for yards gained rushing and touchdowns scored surpassed those established by Carter. Wysocki picked up 1,140 yards as a sophomore, despite missing two games with an injury and set a Maryland record with his 126.7 yards a game. He followed that with 1,359 yards last fall and averaged 123.6 yards a game. He trails Atkins by only 369 yards for career rushing.

Carter was a second team All-America selection by the Football News and the Most Valuable Player in the Coaches All-American game in Lubbock, Texas before joining Tampa in the NFL. Tim Wilson another Groom product is with Houston in the NFL.

His backs scored 16 touchdowns rushing in '80, 14 in '79, and 21 in both 1976 and '78. His 1977 running backs scored 27 touchdowns.

Groom played his collegiate football for Jerry Claiborne at Virginia Tech where he was a three year letterman and as a fullback captained the 1966 Liberty Bowl team. He also captained the undefeated 1963 State Championship team at Charleston Catholic in Charleston, West Virginia.

Following graduation from Tech he remained as a graduate assistant until entering the Army as a Commissioned 2nd Lt. He served as an assistant coach at the USMA Prep School at Fort Belvoir, Virginia in 1968 and in 1969 transferred to West Point as an assistant coach under Tom Cahill.

MARYLAND
OLYMPIC

STRENGTH AND QUICKNESS

Jerry Claiborne rates strength and quickness high on his list of tangibles contributing to a winning football team. He was appalled at the lack of both attributes when he assumed the duties as the Maryland Coach in December of 1971.

In his initial testing of the Terrapins only seven were able to bench press 250 pounds or more and only 14 ran the 40 yards in 4.9 or less. Claiborne immediately established a weight training program that has had phenomenal success with his ability to motivate others a major contributor to the results.

This past spring 56 of his players bench pressed over 300 pounds in their testing and eleven have joined the 400 pound club. During the past nine years 31 players have topped the 400 pound mark and five have bench pressed 450 or more.

In addition to th eimprovement shown by the Terrapins as a result of Claiborne's program many high schools and collegiate teams, some on Maryland's schedule, have adopted his program.

All-American Randy White provided incentive to many Maryland athletes with his accomplishments in the program. White enrolled at Maryland as a 212 pounder who ran a 4.9 for the 40 and bench pressed 260 pounds. He left Maryland weighing 248 pounds and ran the 40 in 4.6.

The Terps have also worked with a down hill running program instituted by Track Coach Frank Costello, a training program that he picked up from the Russians.

Demonstrating that the program is just as beneficial to the backs Louis Carter, a 190 pounder bench pressed 230 pounds and ran the 40 in 4.9. He left Maryland for professional football with Tampa and Washington, as a 201 pounder who bench pressed 330 pounds and ran a 4.5.

Currently Greg Vanderhout, a defensive guard tops the Terrapins bench pressing 445 pounds while defensive tackle Mark Duda recorded 435 and offensive lineman Brian Riendeau 425. Tailback Tim Whittie and Linebacker Joe Wilkins have bench pressed 410 and Offensive Guard Ed Aulisi 405 pounds. Linebackers Louis Weeks and Mike Muller' Offensive Linemen David Pacella and Harry Venezia and Defensive Guard Frank Kolencik have reached 400 pounds.

Three Terps are approaching the 400 pound club with sophomores James Gross and Peter Koch and Junior Mark Sobel at 385 pounds.

PRESIDENT
UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND

John S. Toll, the 22nd president of the University of Maryland, has become a vital force for higher education in the State of Maryland.

The drive behind the Toll presidency is a pledge that "with a determined effort from everyone concerned, the University of Maryland can, in about a decade, become one of the best state university systems in the nation."

Since he became president on July 1, 1978, the University has developed planning documents for the Eastern Shore and Baltimore County Campuses; has initiated multi-campus programs which utilize the resources of the College Park Campus and the University of Maryland at Baltimore; is helping to develop plans through University College for a national television education system; and has raised undergraduate admission standards.

More than $465,000 in grants, including a $190,000 Carnegie Foundation award, were obtained in the first eight months of the Toll presidency to assist Dr. Toll in developing his "Agenda for the 80s," a plan to assure that the University will meet future societal needs. The Carnegie grant will fund an intensive study of the University's roles and missions by a team of educational experts. The results of the study may make the University of Maryland a model for other universities.

"The University of Maryland must adapt to new circumstances and respond to new demands that are being made of universities to provide increasing services to the society," President Toll said. "This process of reshaping the University to gain more effective use of resources, to expand the service mission, and to increase the excellence of the teaching and research missions is now underway. The University intends to bring its resources to bear on the social and economic development of the State of Maryland and to develop scholarly programs and research projects that will help the state and the nation prosper during the next decade."

Dr. Toll first came to the University in 1953 as professor and chairman of what was then a six-man physics department.

Dr. Toll received his undergraduate degree in physics from Yale where he graduated with highest honors. His advanced physics degrees were earned at Princeton. An avid jogger, camper and tennis player, Dr. Toll and his wife Deborah have two daughters.

DR. ROBERT L. GLUCKSTERN

CHANCELLOR
COLLEGE PARK CAMPUS

"The College Park Campus," Says Robert L. Gluckstern, Chancellor of the eighth largest campus in the nation, "is reaffirming its commitments to research, scholarship, and the advancement of knowledge, including the search for solutions to social problems and the pursuit of excellence for its own sake."

One program that emphasizes academic excellence is the Chancellor's Scholars Program. With financial support from alumni and other friends of the University, the Chancellor's Scholars Program seeks to attract and retain top quality students to College Park through the annual award of $500 renewable scholarships to outstanding high school students.

The Distinguished Scholar-Teachers Program, established last year, emphasizes academic excellence by recognizing faculty members who have been particularly successful at translating scholarship into classroom teaching. Each of the six professors selected are given time to develop an honors seminar, a graduate seminar, and a series of public lectures in connection with their areas of expertise during the coming year.

College Park's General Honors Program, now in its fifteenth year, has come to be respected as one of the best of its kind throughout the nation. Despite the pressures of administration, Dr. Gluckstern contributes by teaching a General Honors course in physics almost every semester. He also continues to be active in research.

The accent on quality that has characterized Dr. Gluckstern's administration leads naturally from his own academic background. Educated at the City College of New York (Electrical Engineering) and MIT (Ph.D. in Physics), Dr. Gluckstern taught at Yale University for fourteen years. In 1964 he joined the faculty at the University of Massachusetts at Amherst as professor and chairman of the physics and astronomy department. Under his leadership, the department grew from 14 to 52 faculty members and increased federal support from $30,000 to $950,000 a year.

A member of the Terrapin Club, he is an avid fan and works out on the racquetball courts. He frequently reminds people that Maryland can be proud of its athletes who have combined varsity skills with excellent academic records.

Dr. Gluckstern, who is 55, was born in Atlantic City, New Jersey. He is married to the former Norma Block. The Glucksterns have three children.

MARYLAND EDUCATIONAL FOUNDATION

Tom Fields has reached a goal that many said could not be achieved when he took over as Executive Director of the Maryland Educational Foundation in 1970.

For the past fiscal year the funds generated by the Educational Foundation totaled $1,250,000. When Fields returned to the University of Maryland the contributions to the Educational Foundation were minimal. For the fiscal year ending June 30, 1970 the contributions were approximately $30,000.

The membership of the Terrapin Club has expanded accordingly from the 132 original members to 1,900. The club in addition to the contributions to the Educational Foundation supports the athletic program in many other ways, especially with their attendance at the events. Over one half of the contributors did not attend the University of Maryland but all are strong supporters of Intercollegiate Athletics and its principals of competition.

The funds provided by the foundation have enabled the Terrapins to develop a Women's program that has also gained national recognition. The scholarship program for the women athletes is on a par with the program for the men's non-revenue sports.

The Terrapin Club membership currently includes 40 life members ($10,000 contribution), 49 Super Terrapins ($2,500 annual contributions), 543 Diamondback members ($1,200 annual contribution) and 416 Gold members ($600 annual contribution).

Fields, a retired Colonel from the Marine Corps returned to Maryland in 1970, where as a track star he helped lead the Terps to one of their finest days ever at the Penn Relays winning three Championship of America relay races. During World War II he served in combat in Guadalcanal, Vella Lavella, Bouganville and Iwo Jima. He also served in Korea and Vietnam and at the time of his retirement from the Corps he was the Deputy Director of Information, Headquarters, Marine Corps.
